Insp Dan Welch

Our neighbourhood teams continue to lead the way across Cheshire, with shoplifting detection rates now exceeding 60% for 2026 – far above the national average and a testament to the hard work of officers and partners. We are making Cheshire as hostile as possible for prolific offenders, securing Criminal Behaviour Orders wherever appropriate to protect our communities. We remain fully committed to tackling ASB across all areas, and the recent uplift in neighbourhood officers means you will see more patrols, more visibility, and more officers on foot in our local communities. I remain determined to keep our teams present, proactive, and focused on the issues that matter most to residents.
