Inspector Paul Heatley

As we move into the lighter nights and better weather we can often see an increase in Anti social behaviour, officers have been working hard to be more visible in the town centres, working with partners to ensure this doesn't happen.

We have now seen a reduction in the number of PCSO's but an increase in Police Officers in the Neighbourhood Team this increase will continue over the next few months. Whilst we wish those PCSO's that have left well and their communities will miss them, the new officers will quickly become embedded in their areas. To ensure they tackle what matters to you most please complete the resident's voice survey.
